

Seating Chart

QUIZ!!!!

February 12th, 2014

Essential Question: What have we learned thus far?

Agenda: 1) Quiz 2) Writing: Partner Sonnets
3) Creative Writing

Homework: Leave your notebooks for me to grade!

Writing: Partner Sonnet

- As a pair or on your own, you will write your own “sonnet”
 - This sonnet must be 14 lines long
 - It can either follow the Shakespearean Rhyme Scheme OR be written in iambic pentameter - you choose!
 - Use figurative language, imagery, and personification!
 - I will give you 14 words to include in each line.
-

Writing: Partner Sonnet

Your 14 words are the last words of each line in Sonnet 8:

- | | | |
|--------------|------------|------------|
| 1. sadly | 2. joy | 3. gladly |
| 4. annoy | 5. sounds | 6. ear, |
| 7. confounds | 8. bear | 9. another |
| 10. ordering | 11. mother | 12. sing |
| 13. one | 14. none | |
-

Sharing Partner Sonnets

Creative Writing - Choose one

You find yourself in front of seven identical doors.

A voice from above tells you:

“These seven doors lead to seven places:

Narnia, Neverland, Wonderland, Hogwarts,
Camelot, Middle Earth, and Westeros.”

Which door do you go through?
Why that door? What happens?

Tell
this story:

That's weird, thought Cupid. I've never hit the wrong person like that before.

