Name:
British Literature: Hamlet Midterm Prep
Modern Interpretation Peer-Editing/Revision

For Editors/Revisors:

- 1. Read your partner's Story and do the following...
 - a. Circle any errors in grammar and punctuation
 - b. Underline figurative language and imagery
- 2. Graph your partner's story
 - a. Exposition
 - b. Rising Action
 - c. Climax
 - d. Falling Action
 - e. Resolution/Denouement
- 3. Explain how this story connects to Hamlet:
- 4. Was there anything that was confusing in the story?
- 5. Go back through, and star places where your partner could add more detail/description

For Writers:

- 6. Give this paper back to your partner. Partners, look over the responses, and answer these questions
 - a. Did your partner graph your story correctly? If not, what went wrong?
 - b. Did your partner understand how your story connects to Hamlet? If not, why didn't they?
 - c. Based on your partner's feedback, what do you need to work on to make your story better?